

Doyle & Foutty, P.C. is seeking a licensed Indiana attorney who is physically located in northern Indiana , to work remotely as an associate attorney, with minimum 1-3+ years' experience as a practicing attorney. Prior creditor's rights, foreclosures, title or real estate litigation is a plus but not required. The law firm is based in Indiana, representing local, regional and national clients which include mortgage servicers, banks and title companies. Primary duties will include secured lender representation in foreclosure and bankruptcy cases and related court hearings in the northern 1/3 of Indiana. Competitive salary commensurate with experience and benefits including medical insurance. Resumes and questions should be sent to Paula Reynolds via email to preynolds@doylefoutty.com.